Read BBC 100 Women

The BBC revealed its list of 100 inspiring and influential women from around the world for 2022. This is the 10th season of 100 women. Read the article linked below and consider the following:

- How do the women chosen represent the different roles and experiences of women around the world?
- Why are there an increasing number of female only lists for recognition?
- Are there any industries or areas of the world not recognised / included that you think should be?

Time: 45 minutes

Complete Top 3 Women

Choose three women from the 2022 BBC list. Research what you can find about them and keep a record of their achievements. Why have they been selected for the list? Add one additional woman from 2022 onto your list and justify why you think they should be included.

Time: 40 minutes

Read Gender Stereotypes in Early Childhood

This article is a literature review which includes summaries and conclusions from a lot of different research on gender stereotyping from birth to 7 years old.

Read through the article and consider:

- What surprises you from this literature review?
- What is the most interesting statistic they use?
- What are the biggest effects of gender stereotyping?
- Why can gender stereotypes be harmful?
